Congratulations! A customized children's storybook has been ordered for your child from Little Wonder Company and is being made right now!

Our storybook adventures are built around your child's unique physical attributes. We use these attributes such as skin tone, eye color and hairstyle to create a customized main character who looks like your child and becomes the hero in his or her very own book!

This lovely, imaginative, fun and memorable keepsake is already on its way and should arrive in the mail within two weeks!

If you can't wait and want to see more about your child's customized storybook adventure, visit www.littlewondercompany.com.
